On July 7, 2015 the San Francisco Police Department responded to the 2100 block of Lombard Street in regards to a theft from a locked vehicle located in a parking lot of a hotel. The victim stated that the rear window of his rental car was smashed and that the suspect(s) stole a $1,500 medical device located in the vehicle.

Investigators were able to obtain video surveillance at the scene depicting two suspects, both a man and a woman in a four door silver Dodge Charger, with license plate seen and dents on the passenger side door entering the parking lot at approximately 5:06AM. The female suspect was observed breaking into the victim's vehicle. She fled in the Dodge Charger.

SFPD Investigators issued a crime alert for SFPD Officers to Be On the Look Out (BOLO) for the suspect vehicle. Eight days later, Patrol Officer spotted the vehicle and effected a traffic stop. The driver matched the description of the male suspect seen in the video. The driver was identified as Etiuati Levi, 39, residence unknown. Levi was found in possession of burglary tools and was arrested for 2nd degree burglary and possession of burglary tools.

The female was later identified by a Northern Station investigator as Kelly Auzenne, 33, residence unknown. Auzenne has been connected to several auto burglaries in the Northern District. Auzenne is wanted for five counts of 2nd degree burglary, that's one count for each separate incident.

Levi was arraigned on July 17, 2015 in S.F. Superior Court and posted bail on July 19, 2015. He was apprehended again, 5 days later for committing another auto burglary on the 300 block of Octavia Street. Anyone with further information as to the whereabouts of Auzenne is encouraged to contact the SFPD Anonymous Tip Line at (415) 575-4444 or Text A Tip to TIP411 and include "SFPD" at the beginning of the message.
