On June 14, 2014, members of the Taraval Station Investigations Team arrested 30 year old Giovanni Lauretta, of San Francisco, for nine counts of mail theft, identity theft, burglary, receiving stolen property, and elder abuse after serving a search warrant at his residence in San Francisco. Shortly after his arrest, Lauretta was released on his own recognizance and immediately began to re-offend.

Taraval Station Investigators quickly re-arrested Lauretta on August 1, 2014, for 20 additional counts of mail theft, possession of stolen property, and elder abuse. Taraval Investigators then successfully petitioned the court to increase Lauretta's bail to $500,000.00, ensuring that he will not be released back into the community to re-offend.

Lauretta has already been linked to defrauding over 40 victims in the Taraval District. Taraval Station Investigators are working with U.S. Postal Inspectors on the investigation. If you believe that you have been a victim, or have any additional information, please contact Sergeant Farrell of Taraval Station at 415-759-3120 or Sergeant Goldsborough at number 415-759-3145.
