Several home burglaries have occurred in North Beach neighborhood, which are believed to be a part of a series.

On Monday August 17, 2020 San Francisco Police officers from Central Station responded to the 800 block of Greenwich Street for a report of a burglary. Officers met with the victim who told officers an unknown suspect forced entry into the building lobby and stole his bicycle.

On Monday August 24, 2020 San Francisco Police officers from Central Station responded to the 1800 block of Filbert Street for a report of a burglary. Officers met with the victim who told officers that two unknown suspects forced entry into his garage and stole two bicycles and a motorized scooter.

On Tuesday September 1, 2020 San Francisco Police officers from Central Station responded to the 1000 block of Lombard Street for a report of a burglary. Officers met with the victim who told officers an unknown suspect forced entry into her garage and stole two of his bicycles.

Investigators from the SFPD Burglary Unit and the Central Station Plainclothes Team worked together to identify suspects in each incident.

On Wednesday September 2, 2020 San Francisco Police plainclothes officers from Central Station were patrolling the area of Pier 27 when they observed three suspects attempting to steal a bike. Officers detained the suspects. Two of the suspects were identified as 34 year-old Daniel Cauch and 30 year-old Header Cauch, both of San Francisco. The third suspect was released at the scene.

Daniel Cauch was booked at San Francisco County Jail on one charge of second degree burglary in connection with the incident on Filbert Street and charges of theft (484(a) PC), possession of burglary tools (466 PC), and possession of stolen property (496(a) PC) in connection with the incident on Pier 27.

Header Cauch was booked at San Francisco County Jail on one charge of first degree burglary in connection with the incident on the 800 block of Greenwich Street and charges of theft (484(a) PC), possession of burglary tools (466 PC), and possession of stolen property (496(a) PC) in connection with the incident on Pier 27.

On Wednesday September 2, 2020 San Francisco Police officers were patrolling the 400 block of Broadway when they located a male who was identified as a suspect in at least one home burglary. Officers took 24 year-old Jose Xoolcaamal of San Francisco into custody without incident. Xoolcaamal was booked at San Francisco County Jail on one count of first degree burglary (459 PC) in connection with the incident on Lombard Street. Xoolcaamal was also booked for two local warrants for burglary, receiving stolen property and possession of burglary tools.

SFPD is investigating several other home burglaries in the North Beach area believed to be a part of a series. We want to remind residents to take steps to help prevent burglaries in your neighborhood. Some things you can do is be sure all doors and windows are locked, install motion lights in your yard, install surveillance cameras, do not leave garage door openers in your vehicles and form neighborhood watch groups.

While arrests have been made, these remain active and ongoing investigations. Anyone with information is asked to call the SFPD 24 Hour Tip Line at 1-415-575-4444 or Text a Tip to TIP411 and begin the text message with SFPD.
