On January 14th, 2024, at approximately 12:07 a.m., San Francisco Police officers from Southern Station responded to the 100 block of Berry Street on a report of a shooting.

Officers responded to the scene and located an adult male victim suffering from an apparent gunshot wound. Officers rendered aid to the victim and summoned paramedics to the scene. The medics transported the victim to a local hospital for life-threatening injuries. Despite the lifesaving efforts of the officers, emergency responders, and hospital staff, the male victim succumbed to his injuries and was declared deceased at the hospital. A second adult male victim was located on scene and was treated by medics for non-life-threatening injuries.

Investigators from the San Francisco Police Department Homicide Detail led the investigation. Through the course of their investigation, Investigators identified 20-year-old Ranjeet Dodds as a suspect involved in the homicide and developed probable cause to obtain an arrest warrant.

On March 19, 2024, Dodds was taken into custody in San Jose, California. With the Collaborative efforts of the San Francisco Police Department and the San Jose Police Department, Dodds was booked into San Francisco County Jail #1 for the charge of murder (187(a)PC).

While an arrest has been made, this remains an open and active investigation. Anyone with information is asked to call the SFPD Tip Line at 1-415-575-4444 or Text a Tip to TIP411 and begin the text message with SFPD. You may remain anonymous.
