The juveniles fled the scene, leaving Mr. Chen bleeding and disoriented.

Mr. Chen was hospitalized and eventually succumbed to his injuries. Mr. Chen died on March 19, 2010.

On Sunday, January 24, 2010 at approximately 5:58 PM, 83 year-old Huan Zhou Chen was attacked and assaulted by a group of six black male juveniles on the 1600 block of Oakdale. Mr. Chen had just exited the SFMTA T-Line LRV on Third Street and was walking to his assisted living care facility. The unknown juveniles hit Mr. Chen on the back of his head knocking him to the ground. Mr. Chen's head then struck the sidewalk. The juveniles fled the scene, leaving Mr. Chen bleeding and disoriented. Emergency services were called and Mr. Chen was transported to San Francisco General Hospital and admitted for his injuries. He was subsequently discharged and returned home.

On Friday, March 19, 2010 Mr. Chen succumbed to his injuries. The Medical Examiner's Office ruled the victim's death a homicide as a result of multiple blunt trauma injuries during the January 24th attack.

The San Francisco Police Department Homicide Cold Case Unit is continually seeking information that will identify the suspect(s) and ultimately bring this case to adjudication.
