Rumors and Bullying in the Workplace
(Re-issue DB 14-234)

Under no circumstances should any sworn or civilian member of the San Francisco Police Department be made to feel intimidated by their colleagues, nor should coming to work each day cause any member distress. Intimidating conduct, gossiping or other behavior considered “bullying” in nature will not be tolerated by the San Francisco Police Department. Investigations into allegations of such workplace misconduct will be taken seriously, investigated fully, and any member found in violation of department policy will be held accountable. Sworn and civilian members are reminded to treat others with respect and professionalism at all times.
