FIREWORKS 411: SAFETY & REPORTING

When it comes to fireworks, San Francisco has a pretty straightforward policy to keep people safe: A zero tolerance for the use and sale of ALL fireworks. Yep, that includes sparklers.

According to the San Francisco Police Department (SFPD), in San Francisco, it's illegal to possess or use fireworks such as sky rockets, bottle rockets, roman candles, aerial shells, firecrackers and other types that explode, launch into the air, or move on the ground in an uncontrollable manner. This policy encompasses so-called "safe" fireworks such as the aforementioned sparklers and also fountains.

Using these fireworks can possibly end up with you being fined or serving jail time.

Before you start thinking of local law enforcement as squashing all the fireworks fun, keep in mind that there's an excellent reason for such a strict fireworks policy. According to the SFPD, there are more than 12,000 fireworks-related injuries treated annually in U.S. emergency rooms. Of these injuries, half involve children. Sobering statistics, to say the least.

Another cautionary note is that parents are liable for any damage or injuries caused by their children using fireworks, according to the California Department of Forestry & Fire Protection (Cal Fire).

"Even a sparkler can burn at a temperature that's hot enough to melt some metals," said SF SAFE Executive Director Kyra Worthy. "And when fireworks are misused and go awry, it can not only result in terrible personal injury, but also in fires that cause millions of dollars in property losses annually. So please join us in staying safe this summer and leave the fireworks to the pyrotechnic pros."

Now that we've made it clear what the law is in San Francisco regarding fireworks—and how leaving it to the pros will help keep everyone safe—let's take a moment to consider our furry friends.

It's no secret that our four-legged friends generally aren't big fans of fireworks' season. Many a fur-parent has arrived home on the Fourth of July to find their dog or cat quivering in fear under the bed. It goes without saying that if people heed the warnings in this article—and leave the fireworks to the pros—there will be less neighborhood fireworks nearby to terrify our domestic animals. But just in case, and if you go out on the Fourth, consider leaving your pet in an interior, soundproofed room with a comforting blanket, favorite toy or chewy to focus on in order to help preempt any anxiety they may experience due to illegal fireworks.

By now, you're likely familiar with the SFPD's mantra, "If you see something, say something." That statement is particularly pertinent to when you witness illegal fireworks activity happening in the city. So if you see it, SF SAFE asks you to please report it.

Non-emergency calls regarding the use of fireworks should be placed to the non-emergency dispatch line at 415-553-0123. To report the unlawful sale or storage of fireworks, call 415-553-0123, the SFPD tip line at 415-575-4444, or text a tip to TIP411 and start the text message with SFPD. You can also contact the SFPD about suspected illegal fireworks by emailing them at SFPD.fireworks@sfgov.org.

THIS IS YOUR CHANCE TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE!Volunteer to serve on the San Francisco Civil Grand Jury

San Francisco Superior Court is seeking volunteers for the Civil Grand Jury. The Civil Grand Jury is the "watchdog" for the City and County of San Francisco. The Civil Grand Jury investigates the operations of City government, including officials, departments, and agencies. Each year, the Civil Grand Jury issues reports based on its findings. Those reports are heard before the Board of Supervisors.

The Civil Grand Jury will serve from July 1, 2019 through June 30, 2020. The application deadline is May 17, 2019.

Eligibility Requirements:

- 18 years of age or older and a United States citizen.
- San Francisco resident for at least the past 12 months.
- Able to commit time consistently throughout the term.
- Desire to work together with other committed San Franciscans.

Help make government more efficient!

For more information and an application, please visit

<http://civilgrandjury.sfgov.org>

What is the Civil Grand Jury?

- As required by the California Constitution, the Civil Grand Jury is a "watchdog" that investigates the operations of the City and County government, including its officers, departments, and agencies.
- The Civil Grand Jury is 19 members randomly drawn from a pool of applicants who volunteer to serve for a one year term.

How does it Work?

- Each Civil Grand Jury determines, by majority vote, which issues related to the government of the City and County of San Francisco to investigate. Typically, the Jury divides itself into committees, which carry out the investigations and write the reports.
- To do the investigations and write its reports, Civil Grand Jurors review records and financial documents; interview City and County department heads, elected officials, and staff; and visit government facilities. The entire Jury must vote to approve reports.
- After the Presiding Judge of the Superior Court reviews the reports to ensure they meet legal requirements, the reports are issued. The affected departments are required by law to respond to each finding and recommendation contained in the reports.
- The Board of Supervisors holds a public hearing on each report. The Civil Grand Jury presents the report, and each affected department responds. The Board of Supervisors then issues its own response.

When?

- The entire Civil Grand Jury meets once per week, generally in the late afternoon. Subcommittees meet as needed. Most of the Jury's work takes place during regular business hours.
- Jurors must be able to serve the entire term, from July 1 through June 30. Jurors must be able to commit time consistently throughout the term.

Who is Eligible?

- In order to volunteer to be considered for the Civil Grand Jury, you must be a United States citizen; at least 18 years of age; have lived in San Francisco for at least the past one year; have no felony convictions; and have the ability to communicate in English.

How do I Apply?

- Applications may be downloaded from <http://civilgrandjury.sfgov.org/join.html>, or you may pick one up at San Francisco Superior Court, 400 McAllister Street, Room 007. The application deadline is on May 17, 2019.
- The most qualified applicants will be invited to attend a mandatory informational session on May 21 or May 30, 2019.
- Selection by a panel of Superior Court Judges will be held on June 7, 2019.
- The 2019 - 2020 Civil Grand Jury will be trained on June 10, 17, 18, and 24, 2019.
- The 2019 - 2020 Civil Grand Jury takes office on July 1, 2019.

Now you can connect to city services with only two numbers to remember: 911 for emergencies and 3-1-1 for everything else.

Before 311, over 50% of calls to the 911 center were not emergency related. 311 relieves 911 operators from these non-emergency calls.
